

Mid-Western Aircraft Systems, Inc. Hiring of Boeing Employees

Contingent upon successful purchase of BOEING Wichita operations, Mid-Western Aircraft Systems, Inc (the Company) intends to hire a significant number of employees who currently work in such operations. Any such employee whom the Company hires for the Wichita operation will be credited his or her seniority, including for purposes of benefit eligibility.

Although it is not obligated to do so, the Company may also choose to hire some employees formerly employed by BOEING who have been laid off, and remain on BOEING's recall list. If the Company hires any such employee at a time he or she is still on such list prior to closing, in accordance with BOEING's regular schedule, the Company agrees that it will credit such employee with his or her seniority, including for purposes of determining benefit eligibility.
