

Nothing Yet!

This is not a typical contract negotiations.

As your collective bargaining agreement states this is a contract review per Article 5 Section 5.10 Contract review:

The parties agree to reopen the collective bargaining agreement for the sole purpose of negotiating over a wage increase, health care, pension and/or other economic items for the contract years after the 36th month (estimated to be June 2008). The Parties will meet sixty (60) days prior to the contract's third anniversary date for this purpose. Even if the parties do not agree to the issues under negotiation for this period, the Union and the employees will not have the right to strike or otherwise disrupt the Company's business or operation.

Rumors, Rumors, Rumors

To this point both parties have shared a lot of information and had considerable discussion. However, to date, no agreements have been reached by either party. The facts will come from this committee. The rest is just rumors. As stated before, the committee will share as much information as possible, when possible.

From now through June 25th your negotiating committee will continue to discuss the issues that you addressed in your survey.
